

Sinclair Broadcasting uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Sinclair's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Sinclair is a great example of how Big Media is suffocating journalism and democracy itself. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. As a concerned U.S. citizen, and a voter, I am very upset about this trend, and request the FCC do it's job and demand that all broadcasters serve the public interest. Thank you.
